

Aim:

To Demonstrate a storage as a storage using any public cloud service provider and check the public accessibility

Procedure:

- * Go to Azure portal
- * Create a new resource then search for Storage as a account & create
- * choose a unique name and select the appropriate configuration
- * Once the storage account is created then create new container
- * choose the unique name for containers

Result:

The storage as a service is created and created successfully output:

← → ⌂

welcome window

≡ Rent

Home about service

we offer modern solutions

for Growing Business

Get Started

Offerings

Services

books
bag

Used

shares of stock as investment

new business organization